EXT. EDGE OF FOREST - DAY

Sylvia, Dianna, and Drake are walking on a dirt path that leads through the forest. The path isn't clear, with rocks and overgrown tress slightly in their way. All of their clothes and bits of their faces are covered in dirt and grime.

Dianna is ahead of both Drake and Sulvia, but not by a lot. Dianna suddenly stops dead in her tracks.

SYLVIA

What happened? Do you see anything?

DIANNA

It's...

Dianna turns towards Sylvia and Drake and points at something in front of her. The camera follows her fingers and we see the WISHING WELL.

They all rush over to the Well. They peer into it and the camera pans to see their faces. Dianna covers her mouth and with watery eyes, backs up and looks away. Drake continues to look down with a solemn look on his face. Sylvia starts to shake her head.

SYLVIA

We still don't know whose bones they are. It's impossible to tell from up here. It could just be from an animal.

GHOST 1 (V.O.)

(laughs)

GHOST 2 (V.O.)

That's one way to look at it.

GHOST 3 (V.O.)

An animal could've randomly jumped in the Well and killed itself. It's not that out there.

GHOST 1 (V.O.)

(chuckling)

That's only true if we ignore all the clues that led us here to begin with. Face it, we all know that Lord Autumns is Sylvia slams her fist onto the Well with a pained expression. The voices go quiet and all that we can here are the rustling of the leaves.

EXT. EDGE OF FOREST - LATER

Sylvia and Dianna are sitting next to each other, both wearing a solemn expression, on a fallen tree trunk. Directly across from them is Drake who is leaning against a tree trunk.

A couple of feet behind them is the Well. There are two male members of the Autumns family grabbing bones and putting them into a pile. Sitting not far away from them is Rose who has her eyes closed and is holding a scorched human skull.

She opens her eyes and puts down the skull. With a somber look on her face, she walks towards Dianna, Sylvia, and Drake. As she approaches they all turn to face her.

ROSE
I'm sorry to tell you this, but these bones...

She takes a breath.

ROSE (CONT'D)
...belong to Lord Autumns. I'm sorry for your loss.

Dianna completely breaks down upon hearing this. She starts to cry into her hands. Drake, on the other hand, seems indifferent.

Sylvia looks down at her hands and clenches her fists. Her sad expression turns into one of anger as she stands up straight.

SYLVIA
Those Barnaby bastards will pay!

Sylvia takes off running.

DRAKE
Stop Sylvia! Don't do something stupid!

Sylvia continues to run as the camera pans up to show that she is running towards the Barnaby estate.
